

Autumn 1 – How savage were the Saxons?
Enrichment	Writing	Reading	Maths	Science	Oracy	History / Geography	Art	DT	Computing	RSHE	RE	PE	French	Music
Oxenwood visit – Anglo-Saxon day Church visits RE visitor – the church in the community Magic Man visit – link to English writing	Research the class name Leon and the place in between - narrative writing – Magic man and parents Oxenwood persuasive leaflet/advert – send to Oxenwood. Letter to Governors visit happening next year and why important	Anglo-Saxons – The King who gave up his throne Horrible Histories – Savage Saxons Assorted non-fiction texts about the Anglo-Saxons	Number and place value Addition and subtraction Measurement with addition and subtraction	Pond dipping Food chains	History discussion – debate about Anglo-Saxons – savage or not? King Alfred – lucky or not? Drama in Leon and the place in between	Anglo-Saxons invasion, ways of life Geography of the Anglo-Saxons origin countries King Alfred’s legacy and influence	Designing and creating clay masks	Cooking bread on a campfire - Oxenwood	E-safety Programming skills – repetition in shapes	Exploring our school values Get Heartsmart introduction	Belonging Judaism – how the Bat and Bar mitzvah support belonging	Indoor – Gymnastics range of movements Outdoor – Fundamentals of movement assessment Successful teams	Numbers, articles, alphabet, telling the time, book study – Bon Appetit Mr Lapin	Anglo Saxons
Spirituality and school values	Explore school values in values week Spiritual element of beliefs in magic	Do the Anglo-Saxon societies show our school values?	Creativity – using our talents to help others		One Family – respect for others’ beliefs	Courage – standing up for our own beliefs Understanding others’ ways of life	Creativity – using our talents in art			Exploring all our school values Understanding ourselves	Understanding ourselves and the beliefs of others	Creativity and courage		Creativity
British values and diversity	Tolerance of other beliefs Mutual respect in getting to know class	Rule of law discussion with people invading Britain	Mutual respect in team work	Mutual respect in team work	Mutual respect and individual liberty of opinion	Understanding the foundation of the British Isles			Rule of law – online safety	Mutual respect Individual liberty	Tolerance of others’ beliefs and religions	Mutual respect	Understanding other cultures	Mutual respect and teamwork
Safeguarding and Prevent	Safety at school/fire drills Road crossings – church visits		Outdoor maths	Pond dipping risk assessment		Safety for our Oxenwood experience	Safety with clay and paint		Online safety	Safe and healthy friendships		Safety in indoor PE

Autumn 2 – Were the Vikings raiders or traders?
Enrichment	Writing	Reading	Maths	Science	Oracy	History / Geography	Art	DT	Computing	RSHE	RE	PE	French	Music
Friendship week Church visits Dentist visit RE visitor	Arthur and the Golden Rope – character description	Arthur and the Golden Rope	Multiplication and division	Digestion and nutrition – teeth	History debate – Vikings raiders or traders?	Vikings – why did they raid Britain? Did they trade?	Sketching long boats and using different media – chalk and charcoal		E-safety – trustworthy data, strong passwords.	Don't forget to let love in	Light as a symbol	Indoor – dance	Weather, numbers and temperatures	Viking saga songs – vocal unit
	Viking poetry	The dragon in the library	Fractions and Geometry	Health education – healthy diet	Art – developing our constructive criticism		Friendship week art		Anti-Online bullying	Friendship/Anti-bullying week	Care home Christmas letters	Outdoor - Hockey
			Measurement						Creating media – picture editing
Spirituality and school values		Do the Vikings show our school values?	Creativity – using our talents to help others		One Family – respect for others' beliefs	Courage – standing up for our own beliefs Understanding others' ways of life	Creativity – using our talents in art			Love for others and ourselves Courage to stand up if something is wrong	Understanding ourselves and the beliefs of others – light and its meaning to us	Creativity and courage		Creativity
British values and diversity		Rule of law discussion with people invading Britain	Mutual respect in team work	Mutual respect in team work	Mutual respect and individual liberty of opinion	Understanding the foundation of the British Isles			Rule of law – online safety	Mutual respect Individual liberty	Tolerance of others' beliefs and religions	Mutual respect	Understanding other cultures	Mutual respect and teamwork
Safeguarding and Prevent	Road safety with church visit		Outdoor maths	Food safety, keeping ourselves healthy			Safety with different media		Online safety	Safe and healthy friendships		Safety when playing football		