

Curiosity

Psalm 19:1

UNCRC: Article 13 – Children have the right to get and share information, as long as the information is not damaging to them or others.

Psalm 19:1

Reflection

Think of all the ways that you can continue to be curious and to find ways of stopping your worries overwhelming you:

- Talk to someone – it's better to share
- Write them down and put them away in a jar etc.
- Make a worry doll
- Listen to quiet music to help you to relax
- Do some cloud watching – what can you see?
- Go for a walk and really look at the world around you – you will be amazed at what you discover

Can you think of any other ideas?

Let us pray,

Dear Lord

Help us to continue to be curious even through difficult times. Help us to find ways to overcome our worries so that we can appreciate your wonderful world and realise that, like in the story, the solution is often right there in front of us.

Amen

Will you come and follow me

Will you come and follow me

(only needed if you don't want to watch the video)

Will you come and follow me

if I but call your name?

Will you go where you don't know

and never be the same?

Will you let my love be shown,

will you let my name be known,

will you let my life be grown

in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?

Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?

Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?

Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.
