

Discover the palace in the Roman time. The amazing palace was damaged because there was a storm and now there are interesting ruins & it.

Roman way, Fishbourne
 Chichester, West Sussex
 PO19 3QR
 Telephone: 01243 784829
 Website: 01243 785859
 Email: adm@fish.co.uk
 Sussex.gov.uk

Welcome to Fishbourne
 Roman Palace

Welcome to Fishbourne

The historic Roman palace of Fishbourne is unique with the survival of its exceptional mosaic floors.

The palace was built between

AD 69 and AD 79 and was discovered in 1960. Today this palace is a site of lapidation and gardening and is place to find out more about the Romans.

Enjoy the fascinating Museum with its fantastic artifacts such as the Roman helmet the silver Roman coin and the Roman bronze sword at Fishbourne

Explore the history of the mosaic floors and the museum's exhibitions of a real Roman body. Next to it is a beautiful mosaic of cupid riding on a dolphin.

Follow the gladiators gladiators and the magnificent bat hedges in the middle of a remarkably large garden surrounded by beautiful trees.

Learn about the past and how the Romans used to live you can see activities such as weaving, mosaics, pottery in the kitchen and spring well.